CONCERT AT HELENA HAS RUSTIC SETTING

MISTAKEN FOR SINGERS' MANAGER, STUDENTS ARRANGE SCENERY

TROUBADOURS TELL MANY TALES OF TRIP

Club Gets Greatest Applause at Capital City Automobile Show.

From church choir lofts to barn yards was a step in stage property made possible for the University Glee club by the bucolic wit of two former students, O. C. Lamport and "Pete" Ronan who assumed the role of Glee club managers in Helena and designed a rural scene for the songsters in the Liberty theater Saturday night. This was one of the many tales circulating around the campus after the return of the Glee club from their tour of the state.

The theater manager at Helena, thinking all University students gleemen, accosted Lamport and Ronan on the street Saturday morning, and learned from their own lips that the arrangement of the Glee club properties was in their hands.

Real Manager Comes.

When Manager R. D. Jenkins arrived at the theater Saturday afternoon he found the rustic effect carried out to the last measure of rusticity. Harness hung on the wall, wash tubs, collected in various parts of Helena by the wives of the negro stage hands, stood waiting for the Glee club washermen, pitchforks waited for the individual hay-makers, and the floor was covered with a soft blanket of rural greenery.

After two hours of argument the real manager of the club convinced the theater owner that rustics were out of order.

Applaud with Klaxons.

The greatest applause received on the trip was at the Auto show in Helena Saturday afternoon when the club was encored four times. Klaxons and tooting horns were employed to raise the roof of the show building.

While in Billings the Glee club sang at the morning and evening services of the First Methodist church. Professor Cecil Burleigh charmed the congregatin with violin selections, De Loss Smith and E. Orlo Bangs sang solos.

STUDENT CONVOCATION TO BOOST SPORT

A live "spring sports" rally will be the main offering of convocation Thursday morning, according to President Payne Templeton of the A. S. U. M. A lack of interest and too few men turning out for baseball and track show that a lot of "pep" is needed by the students. Talks will be made by men prominent in both these lines of athletics and prospects and plans for the coming season outlined.

The Aber Day committee will also make their report and the men will be assigned to their duties for Friday. For the musical part of the hour, either the Glee club or a quartet from the men who toured the state this year will sing and there will be a cornet solo by "Bud" Hunt. Cheer Leader Gregory Powell will lead the yells.

"University Beautiful" Is Goal of "Daddy" Aber—Godfather of Campus Clean-Up Day

Because he is a friend to every student, they have fittingly termed him "Daddy" Aber. It is a word used in all respect, for he has been a father to many who are today bucking the big game ahead of us.

They named the occasion "Aber Day" because no one has taken the interest, in the beauty of the campus which has been taken by Professor William Aber.

The distinction between vocation and avocation has been clearly shown in the efforts of Professor Aber since he came to Montana. His vocation has been the instruction of students—and this instruction has covered many things unheard of in the class-room. His avocation has been making the State University a "University Beautiful."

How well he has succeeded in the first is known only by those who have come into personal contact with the mind of "Daddy" Aber. How well he has succeeded in the latter is testified to by the reputation for beauty and uniqueness which this campus of ours possesses.

There used to be a song sung around the campus which contained the phrase: "I love every inch of her campus wide." The sentiment in those few words has been the stimulus responsible for the work which Professor Aber has done so well. There is not a corner or nook within the sphere of this institution which has not been searched out by "Daddy" Aber. Flower beds, lawns, athletic fields—all these things have come from the interest of the vice-president of this school.

That is why Friday is Aber Day and the fact that it is popular with the students is dependent as much upon the campus-wide respect which is felt for "Daddy" Aber as for the clean-up work which will be done. No man has been honored more by the students and there has been no man more deserving of the honor.

SINGERS ENTERTAIN HOME FANS TONIGHT

Glee Club, Back From Tour of State, Ready for Final Concert of Season at Missoula Theater.

CURTAIN RISES AT 8:15

"There'll be a big time tonight" at the Missoula theater where the University's own Glee club will perform for students and Missoula citizens after two weeks of entertaining in the state at large.

The Glee club members returned from the state tour Snuday noon, and have since been practicing together and individually to be in trim for the final concert of the season tonight. The boys report the best of trips. Applause and hearty reception was their lot throughout the state. They are in prime singing condition to give Missoula a concert never equaled by a state organization.

The expenses of the trip were heavy, but the manager, R. D. Jenkins, expects to break even if the crowd tonight is as large as is predicted. Tickets have been on sale at the box office since Saturday.

Every student who believes in supporting his glee club, as well as those who merely applaud good music, will be there. The Glee club will close its season with the most appreciated of praise, that from fellow students.

The curtain will rise at 8:15.

Dryest Oration Offered $20 by Prohibitionists

Twenty dollars for the dryest oration!

Aw, come on! Twenty dollars will be awarded for the best oration to be delivered on the prohibition question at a contest to be held April 4. The date was originally set for March 31, but the speeches are not seasoned sufficiently to stand the strain so soon. Alva Rees and Joe Townsend have signified their intentions of murmuring the customary "Ladies and gentlemen, etc." a week from tonight.

Bernice Perkins, '18 left Sunday morning for Billings where she will visit for a week with her parents.

CHANCELLOR INVITED HERE ABER DAY

The following night letter was sent to Edward C. Elliott, chancellor of the University of Montana, last night.

Chancellor E. C. Elliott, Bozeman, Montana.

Friday is Aber Day, annual campus clean-up day at State University. All students out with rake and hoe. Jolly-up in the evening. Your being here would put more pepper into the day. We look for you on Northern Pacific train No. 3 Friday.

THE MONTANA KAIMIN.

STUTZMAN NAMED CARNIVAL MANAGER

DANCES ARE ELIMINATED

Peanuts—bow legged, knock kneed, jumble eyed, double jointed, squint eyed, pigeon toed, bald headed—oh, peanuts! If you want to sell peanuts, put on a show, or delude the public in any manner at the Carnival on May 5th, see Theodore Stutzman, '18, who has been appointed concession manager by John Patterson, manager of the A. S. U. M.

The Carnival this year is to be bigger and funnier than ever. One new feature will be the elimination of dancing. To make up this array of stunts and shows of unusual excellence will be required. Every organization, school, department and class is expected to provide them. Manager Stutzman says "the more attractions we get the better; if they cannot all be put in the gymnasium, we will have an outdoor circus. Now is the time to get busy. If you have a stunt for the parade or performance, work it up and bring it to the board of consorship."

CAMPUS JOURNALISTS TO EDIT CITY DAILY DURING TRACK MEET

Students in the school of journalism will again edit the Missoula Sentinel during the interscholastic track meet, May 9-13. The management of the local evening newspaper has offered the privilege of getting out the regular editions of the paper the three days upon which the track meet is held and the journalists have gladly accepted the offer. As was the case last year the students of journalism will prepare all the local copy, edit the telegraph copy, write the heads and make up the paper. There will be no issues of the Kaimin that week, the Sentinel will take the place of the student paper.

The staff in charge of the track meet issues will consist of: managing editor, Emmet Riordan; telegraph editor, Clarence Streit; city editors, Bruce Hopper, Edwin Stanley and J. T. Crowe; copy reader, Arthur J. Butzerin. George Scherck will have charge of the covering of the events at the field and the students in the school of journalism will work on news beats in Missoula and on the campus.

J. A. Risken of Anaconda visited his son Lou Risken at the University during the week end.

STUDENTS AWAIT ANNUAL WORKDAY

ALL ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED FOR SECOND ANNUAL CLEAN-UP

POSITIONS ASSIGNED FOR FRIDAY'S LABOR

Every Man Given Station at Which He Must Report Before 9 o'Clock.

Aber day with its blisters and aches, its helpful mingling and accomplishment, is but three days away. Foremen have been named to take charge of the different phases of the work; food has been ordered for the big picnic lunch and Professor M. J. Elrod has telegraphed the chief of the weather department requesting a clear, sunshiny day—nothing has been overlooked, not even a steam pipe to heat the water in the bath tub.

Bosses for the day have been named by Manager Patterson, with the assistance of Coach Nissen and Professor Bonner, as follows: Campus, Professor Aber; Baseball field, Crawford and Collins; Track, Stanley and Higgins; Tennis, Templeton; Clay bank, Busha and Kemp. The police force will consist of Bentz, Cook, Keeran, Robertson, Sanderson and Griffith.

Work will start at 9 o'clock, after a short band concert on the campus. Every man registered in the University will be expected to report to the foreman of the work to which he is assigned, before 9 o'clock. The roll will be called and the names of students not present will be given to the police squad who will search for the absentees and when they are found they will be treated to a bath in the campus tub. The committee in charge of the event expects to conduct the duckings at a time which will not interfere with the work of the laborers.

At noon the women of the University will serve lunch to the workers. If the weather is favorable the feed will be held on the campus, otherwise it will take place in the gymnasium. In the evening there will be a dance in the gymnasium. There will be no admission charged.

Workers are requested to report to the following stations:

WHAT SENTINEL SEES.

If every transgressor could be taken half way up Mount Sentinel and forced to look down upon the brown-streaked campus which is trying so hard to conform to the laws of nature and turn green in the spring, most of them would cease their needless cutting across the lawn. A campus which had one time was beautiful with color at this season, is now marred and ugly.

The climb up the mountain side also indicates only too well what classes are to blame for the ruin of the beautiful. This expose may cause hard feeling, but the facts are obvious to all who will look.

Chief among the tracks which run across the once-treasured lawn is that leading from the north side of the main gate of University hall, used mainly by the Sigma Nus and Thetas. Next in importance is that which runs from the dorm to the library—and as a side-light, better than compulsory green ribbons would be the enforcement of the "frosh of the grass" law. Third among the hideous paths is that which comes from the south side of University avenue, upon which side is located the Sigma Chi house. There is one which begins from the street-car gate and runs to the science hall; there is one from the library to the same place—and all of these are clear and distinct from the hill-side.

Answer.

To Prof Getz's reporting class.

Let's go to the University of California. "Hiking" is on the curriculum there. You get friend maiden and the sanction of the "instructor" in hiking, set out for open and get a nice little h. to g. credit chalked down opposite your name.

If we had that course here same of the frosh would be graduating in June.

And some of the seniors, in the absence of the hiking credit at Montana, might apply for a job of "instructor" in it down at Berkeley.

Campus Sports.

Running the gauntlet on the library steps.

Let me write the sentences in the typewriting book and I care not who writes the ragtime or the laws of the country.

Order of the Billiard Ball.

The ivory decoration goes to one M. J. Donoghue (yes, it's Mort) this time. Referring to another person, he said: "He don't speak very good English."

Famous Posers Answered. What's in Name?"

Two students worked out the answers for an economics paper together. The two papers differed in wording. One of them got an A, the other a B.

Is just the thing.

No Longer Mere Man.

Speaking of the sweet girl graduate a senior girl tells us in the Kaimin that "if circumstances are benevolent she will probably marry." If that's the way to look at it we know several boys on the campus who are considering philanthropy strongly.

Startling Statements.

If there is anything that cannot bear free thought, let it crack.

—Wendell Phillips.

You Have to do Something, Too, Jim. Em Stone: "You have to buy one of these 'Who's Who' books to get your name in it."

Fry: (eagerly) 'How much do they cost?'

The editor of the Kaimin asks us to thank Prof Getz for his kind action in telling the reporting classes to hand in a copy of the Kaimin with all the mistakes in diction marked. That's one way to get the paper read.

Another way is to paint it a la Denver Post or Butte Miner.

HIGH SCHOOL EDITORS WILL MEET HERE

The editors-in-chief, associate editors, business and circulation managers of all Montana high school newspapers, magazines and annuals have been invited to attend the second annual meeting of the Montana inter-scholastic press association during track meet week May 8-13.

The association, organized last year by the Montana School of Journalism under the direction of Dean A. L. Stone and Professor Carl Getz, during interscholastic week has now five school papers enrolled in the organization: The Hamiltonian, at Hamilton, The Konah, at Missoula, The Gyser, at Livingston, The Cliff Dweller, at Thompson Falls, and the Gallatin, at Bozeman, according to Miss Gladys Phillips of the Missoula Konah, who is the secretary of the organization.

Randal Gould of Bozeman is the president of the association. There are still five or six papers in the state that have not joined the organization.

STUDENTS HEAR BONNER EXPLAIN HIGHWAY WORK

The latest improvements in government construction were explained to the class in highways and bridges of the Forest school, by Chief Geographer Frank Bonner at an entertainment given by the office of Geography of the U. S. Forest service Monday afternoon. The plans and specifications of the Fourth of July canyon project, one of the largest which the forest service will undertake in 1916, received special emphasis as it shows the latest developments in highway construction.

SCRIBBLERS' CLUB TO BE INSTALLED APRIL 8

The Scribblers, club, an upperclass organization composed of women who have shown unusual proficiency in journalism, will be installed as Kappa chapter of Theta Sigma Phi at the State University Saturday, April 8, by Miss Beryl Dill, national organizer of the fraternity.

Miss Dill is a graduate of the department of journalism of the University of Washington and is now editor of the Searchlight, a semi-weekly newspaper published at Bremerton, Wash.

ALPHA GAMMA INITIATES

At a meeting of the Alpha Gamma Phi fraternity last evening, James Fry, John Markle, Thomas Blenz, Alvin Lister, Harley Hartson, Charles Bauer and Martin Pippinburg were formally initiated. Vocal numbers by Mrs. T. A. Price and Mrs. W. B. Russell were enjoyed after the ceremony and refreshments served.

Hon. J. M. Kennedy of Billings will deliver a series of lectures at the Forest school this week. Mr. Kennedy was formerly State Commissioner of Agriculture and publicity and makes it a point to visit the Forest school at least once a year.

BACK FROM MEXICO GATES GIVES VIEWS OF BORDER TROUBLE

"Mexico? Yes, I expect some greasy-looking bandit will be coming forward to demand a reward from the United States government for killing Villa, and then another Villa will assume command."

The sage prophet of foreign affairs who thus epitomized his view of the Mexican situation, was not a member of the United States cabinet, but Elihu Gates of Polson, who was a student at the University two years ago. Gates left the University after distinguishing himself by throwing a sophomore in the class wrestling match, and has since been traveling around Mexico with American electrical engineers in quest of the adventurous. He stayed at Villa's camp when the bandit was at the height of his power, and declares the pictures of his brutality found in the American newspapers are true.

Gates visited old friends on the campus Friday and Saturday. He is now selling patent breakfast food, but intends to sail for South America later in the spring.

TEMPLETON COMPLAINS OF 'M' PUT UP BY FROSH

"Certainly it was an ill wind that blew the 'M' off of Sentinel last summer," declared Payne Templeton, president of the Associated Students of the University of Montana last night.

"The old 'M' was famous throughout the Northwest and was one of the most distinctive features of the University to be impressed upon the memory of Missoula visitors. Now the casual visitor in the city knows only by hearsay that there is such an institution as the University of Montana situated here. The scratches made by the freshmen last fall will soon be overgrown by grass and weeds and the 'M' will be completely obliterated. I'm glad that I don't believe in omens."

THETAS INITIATE NINE

Nine new members were initiated into Alpha Nu chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta Saturday. They are Gladys Lewis of Howard, Cleora Logan of Kalispell, Doris Robinson of Great Falls, Ruth Davis of Butte, Gretchen Van Cleave of Custer, Charlotte Plummer and Hazel Baird of Stevensville, and Frances Falck and Bernice Berry of Missoula.

After the initiation services, the initiates were entertained by the active members and a alumni at a seven course banquet at the Florence hotel at 8 o'clock. Thirty members of the fraternity were seated at the long table, which was decorated in pansies and the colors black and gold.

Theodosia Sherburne, '18, who is spending this semester with her parents in Browning, Mont., came to Missoula Saturday for the Kappa Alpha Theta initiation and banquet. Miss Sherburne will visit in Missoula for about two weeks before returning to her home.

Flowers to Commemorate Shakespeare on Campus

It is customary for the statues to be erected in honor of great men. But the unusual will happen at this University with the planting of a Shakespeare flower bed this spring. In this bed, which lies in the plot between the library and the street car track, will be planted the flowers mentioned by the great author in his plays, which can grow in this climate. Among these will be mignonette, daisy, violet and poppy. The planting will take place about April 23 and at the same time it is hoped that a Hawthorne tree may be obtained to plant. Professor W. M. Aber and Miss Francis Corbin are in charge of the movement.

DORM FIRE ALARM FAILS TO ROUSE ALL DREAMERS

The dormitory alarm clock—the new fire gongs—was tried for the first time last Friday evening shortly after the girls had said their "now I lay me's" and dropped off to sweet, sweet dreams. Mrs. Lucy E. Wilson, matron of Craig hall, warned the girls, early in the evening, that she would try out the new alarm and shortly after eleven o'clock the clang of the ten large gongs brought the girls out of slumberland—that is it brought some of them out of it, while several of the girls established reputations as sound sleepers by asking to be told about it the next morning. Those who were awakened compared the noise to the roar of Niagara or the cheering section at an Aggie football game. By pressing the button at any one of the stations the gongs on every floor of the hall are rung.

HIGH SCHOOL DEBATERS FINISH PRELIMINARIES

Only one debate remains in the preliminary contests of the Montana High School Debating league from which the contestants in the finals to be held at the University at the time of the interscholastic track meet are chosen. Forsyth and Harlowton meet in the last debate of the series this week.

The schools which will send representatives to the finals are: Polson, Kalispell, Butte, Bozeman, Lewistown, Townsend, Hysham, Billings, Valier and the winner of the Forsyth-Harlowton contest. Each of these schools will send one representative who will compete as a member of one of a number of debate teams selected from the contestants by lot. Prizes will be awarded to individuals, not teams.

PAPER MAKER TALKS TO SIGMA DELTA CHI MEN

The science of making paper was described to the members of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalistic fraternity, last Thursday night by Eben D. Cornelson, representative of the Inland Empire Paper company of Spokane. The meeting was held in the Sigma Nu chapter house and was in the nature of a smoker-luncheon. Dr. J. H. Underwood was the guest of the men and gave an informal discussion upon current sociological problems.

EUGENISTS INSPECT CLASS

The class of backward children at the Central school in the city was visited Friday by the students at the University who are taking the course in eugenics. The students under Professor A. W. Bray of the biology department and Professor F. O. Smith of the psychology department, examined and tested each one of the defectives.

D. R. INITIATES

Robert Gretencourt, John Dowling, Albert Nelson and Alva Rees were initiated into the Delta Rho fraternity last night.

STUDENTS INTERESTED IN ECONOMIC STUDY

OLD IDEA THAT SUBJECT IS DRY IS DISAPPEARING, DIETRICH SAYS.

By the time most students reach college they have become interested in some of the principles that govern the economic life of not only college students, but all people. Some of them have decided that they would like to know just a little more than is generally known about the organization of the activities of society as a whole. In fact more than a few come with such desires for the classes in Economics at the University of Montana are, in great many cases, more than filled.

Since the war has been going on in Europe the economics classes have had especially good opportunities to gain facts and make comparisons concerning the immediate and ultimate affects of the struggle across the water upon the economic structure of our own country. Not only have subjects of national importance been taken up and discussed but local subjects have been given attention. The effects of a new sugar factory in Missoula on the prosperity of Western Montana have been analyzed. The proposed co-operative plan of selling garden and orchard produce has been discussed.

It is very true the theories of economics are learned, as they should be. But the work does not stop here. The practical application of these theories are discussed and in this way the student not only becomes acquainted with the principles of political economy but also with the industrial and commercial institutions of our country. This very thing stimulates an interest in the general welfare of all the people and, after all, this is the greatest thing that any line of education can accomplish. Because of such methods in instruction the old idea that economics is a "dry" subject is fast disappearing. Certainly it stands to reason that the very study of those things which constitute the progress and growth of our nation, cannot be uninteresting.

J. MAURICE DIETRICH.

NO PERMIT—NO MONEY ELLIOTT TELLS PROFS.

Traveling expenses incurred by members of the University faculty on trips away from the University will hereafter be paid only when prior authorization has been obtained from the office of the chancellor, according to the first administrative memorandum issued from the office of Chancellor E. C. Elliott. It will be necessary to present a written request, together with appropriate explanations, to the chancellor and only with this approval will the person concerned be entitled to present a bill in satisfaction for repayment of expenses. The same regulations apply to the advancement of money.

S. U. NEOPHYTES HEAR TALK ON MERMAID INN

Members of the local club which will be called Ye Mermaid Inn chapter of Sigma Upsilon, national literary fraternity, spent a half hour looking over the old English inn of that name where Marlowe, Ben Jonson and Shakespeare and other famous men cracked their jokes and drank their ale hundreds of years ago, while Bruce Hopper described the old rendezvous from literary allusions to it. The club met at 9:30 and after the program plans for the installation of the chapter April 6, were discussed.

Bob Borland, a junior in the Forest school, who took leave of absence to study the overhead skidding methods used by the Libby Lumber company in Kootenai county, is now employed by the Interstate Lumber company in their mill at Bonner. He expects to make a month's study of the lumber grading before returning to school.

Wolf-Public Opinion-Gets Little Red Riding Hoods

"Keep off the grass!"

The two little Red Riding Hoods who had started across the oval in front of Science hall this morning turned and looked at the journalism building from which the sounds had come. They hesitated and then walked on.

"Get off the campus!"

This time the order was yelled from the library steps. The girls stopped, but only for an instant. From the other side—from the dormitory—came another peremptory "Get off the campus!"

The pressure of public opinion was too great.

They got.

ILLNESS MAKES SINGER CANCEL LOCAL CONCERT

Florence Hinkle, the New York prima donna, who was to appear in a concert in Missoula, Monday night has cancelled the engagement because of illness.

The contract for Miss Hinkle's concert was signed last October, the financial responsibility being assumed by De Loss Smith, of the department of music and E. Rea Couzens. They are now working to bring the New York Symphony orchestra to take Miss Hinkle's place, but as yet no definite arrangement has been completed. The idea of the concert is not not financial gain. If there is anything left after the expenses are paid, it is to be put into a fund for furthering musical progress in Missoula.

Merle Kettlewell, '15, who is teaching in the Plains high school and Grace Saner, '14, who is teaching at St. Ignatius, visited the Theta girls for the week-end.

DEBATERS GET BID TO JUNIOR PROM AT UTAH AGGIE SCHOOL

"Bring all your paraphernalia in all its glory because we are going to treat you as royal guests at our junior prom Monday night," was the word received from the Utah Agricultural college at Logan by Howard Johnson and Leo Horst, who leave Wednesday morning for Utah, where they will take part in two intercollegiate debates on the same question, but on opposite sides.

Next Friday night Johnson and Horst will debate with the University of Utah, which will be represented by James White and Henry Beal. They will uphold the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved, that the United States should adopt a responsible form of cabinet government." This will be the third debate held between the two universities. Montana has won the two debates held by unanimous decisions.

The Montana representatives will then go to Logan, attend the junior prom Monday evening and debate with a team from the Utah Agricultural college Tuesday night on the negative side of the same question argued with the University of Utah.

SORORITY ENTERTAINED.

Mrs. C. F. Dodds entertained the girls of Delta Phi Zeta at a dinner at her home at 421 University avenue Sunday. The table was decorated in lavender and green, and the colors were also worked into the menu card. The guests were Mrs. C. F. Borg and members of the sorority, Esther Larson, Atta Hutchinson, Charlotte Bockes, Cora Quast, Lenore Hemmick, Elizabeth Lewis, Kathryn Sutherland, Grace Reeley and Alice Boles.

Arva Wiloughby, '17, is a guest at the Kappa Alpha Theta house, and will visit in Missoula for a week.

INTER-FRATERNITY BASEBALL SEASON OPENS NEXT MONDAY

Sigma Chi Will Meet Iota Nu in First Game of Series to Settle Greek Letter Championship and Winner Will Meet Sigma Nu.

The Sigma Chi and Iota Nu fraternities will meet in the first inter-fraternity baseball game ever staged on the local campus next Monday night at 4:30. This is the first game of a series which will be played for the fraternity championship of the University. The winner of the game Monday night will meet the Sigma Nu fraternity for the next game of the series. When the championship is decided it is proposed to issue a challenge to any other organization who can muster a ball team.

The first baseball game of the inter-collegiate season will be played about the second week in April with the strong team from the University of Idaho. Idaho will start the local season and from then on the Varsity will be busy until the end of the season.

So many are turning out for the Varsity squad this year that it will be hard to pick the men who will be honored by wearing the University colors. The men who are turning out for the infield are Dries, who, we wish to remark, is the best piece of baseball material we have ever had the honor of seeing on a college diamond, Robertson, veteran third sacker, Ricketts, the Maranville of the college world, Sanderson, the peerless hitter, and Sheridan, who acts like Hal Chase around the initial sack. The outfielders are Collins, last year's captain and manager this year, Hobson, Gault, "Click" Clark, Peak and Dietrich. The catching department will be taken care of by Crawford, a veteran, Gosman, who has a rep as a good receiver, and Muri a freshman. The pitchers who are trying out regularly are Jimmie Gault, Kent, Collins, Clark, Higbee and Loring, a freshman who has good speed and stuff on the ball.

The team as present is coached by Professor C. W. Leaphart of the Law school. Jerry Nissen will take charge in a few days and the weeding process will begin.

CAPTAIN STANLEY, TRACK, '16.

Ed Stanley, track captain, has won his letter in the sprints for two years. This year he is leading one of the best track teams ever turned out by the University. The schedule at present calls for two meets, Washington State College here and Idaho in Moscow.

DOPE

Don't forget to hear the boys warble tonight.

Light Occupations.

Singing in the Montana State college Glee club.

Walter S. Rose, captain of the Syracuse eleven last year, has been engaged to coach the 1920 Syracuse freshman team.

Willard received $47,000 for 40 minutes fighting with Moran for the heavyweight championship and still they talk of the value of a college education.

Yale may lose three captains, football, wrestling, and swimming, on account of scholarship standing.

Too Much Light?

The dorm girls are complaining about the conditions of the campus at night.

Must Swim for Sheepskin.

Every woman graduate of the University of Kansas must be able to swim or she will not receive her diploma.

More than sixty candidates turned out for the first baseball practice at Washington State college. Of this number fifteen were from last year's championship squad. W. S. C. expects to clinch the Northwest conference title again this year.

Burleigh Prepares for Rush.

Fred Goodhart of the Dickinson college baseball team attributes his comeback as a pitcher to playing the violin. That's all right, Fred, but what are you going to do with a pitcher when he cannot play the Jews' harp, let alone the violin.

Howard Toole, who is one of the best sprinters Virginia university ever turned out, its getting into form on the local track. His presence is a great help to the sprinters who are getting pointers from him every day.

The State college is nearly 100 per cent efficient in making alibies.

The University of Idaho is sending four men to the far Western Indoor meet to be held in Corvallis, Ore. The men are Massey, who won the conference 880 and came in second in the 440; Dingle, a fast 440 man; Morrison, who gained his fame in the sprints, and Pynn, a sprinter with an interscholastic reputation.

INVITATIONS TO MEET ARE SENT OUT

Bulletins announcing the Thirteenth Annual Interscholastic Meet of the University which will be held here May 9-13 were sent out last week by Dr. J. P. Rowe of the geology department, who is in charge of the preparations for the meet. By April 1 form blanks on which the high schools are to list their entries will be distributed through the state.

Inquiries already received indicate that the meet will be even larger than last year. It is expected that 45 schools, seven more than last year, will take part. In addition to the track meet, the interscholastic championship of the state in debate, declamation and essay will be settled. The entry blanks of the competing schools must be filled in and in the hands of the committee in charge by May 2.

BUILDING BUDGET GETS ELLIOTT'S ATTENTION

The budget providing for new buildings and building space is occupying the attention of Chancellor E. C. Elliott of the University of Montana, who was in Butte the first of the week attending a University of Wisconsin alumni banquet. Dr. Elliott says that there will be changes in all four of the schools in the united University and that at the State University and the State College buildings will probably be provided in his budget which will go into effect next year.

The details of the budget have not yet been completed. It is important at this time because March 1 is the end of the school year. Chancellor Elliott is now in Bozeman and will come to Missoula Saturday.

ROSS GETS JOB.

Stillman Ross, a sophomore in the forest school, left the University Monday to work for the Interstate Lumber company. Ross will have charge of the laying out of the logging railroads and bridges in the company's timber land in Mineral and Sanders counties.

Alice Hardenburgh, '14, who is teaching school at Arlee, Mont., spent the week-end visiting at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

CO-ED BASKETBALL SEASON RECORD

The record of the co-ed basketball team has been compiled by W. W. Mustaine, coach of the team, and gives in figures the success of the season. The girls played five games winning three and losing two. Three of the contests were played on foreign territory.

Summary of Season.

Points from field goals.

Thomson	16
Dennis	24
Prescott	32
Hemmick	10
Morehouse	2
Baird	18
Selfert	2

Points from free throws.

Dennis 3 out of 10.

Hemmick 3 out of 7.

Total points made 110.

Four Forgetful Frosh Feel Sophomore Paddle

Four absent-minded members of the freshmen class were warmly reminded that their headgear was out of date Friday morning, when a cordial sophomore reception committee, armed with seasoned paddles, waited at each campus gate to greet the students hurrying to 8:30 classes.

The time-honored tub adorned the campus with a hose hanging suggestively over the side, but owing to the temperature of the weather and the chill of the water the paddle treatment was thought to be sufficient to remind the thoughtless ones of the change of styles.

Those who ate off of the mantle Friday evening were A. Nelson, Black, Flaherty and Theriault.

IRISH DRAMA READ.

The Modern Drama club laughed at the Irish wit and superstition on Saturday evening as it is portrayed in Synge's drama, "In the Shadow of the Glen." Mr. Forest Owens interpreted the play.

Miss Gettys will read the next play to the club on Saturday April 8.

Ruth Cronk, '15, visited at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house for the week-end.
